

Membership Application Form

(Please complete in Block Capitals)

Membership of the Postal Club is open to any postal employee over interested in philately, including persons working in the field of philately and interested in the furtherance of the activities and objects of the Postal Club.

However, please note that Article 1 of the Postal Club's By-laws states:

1 The INTERNATIONAL PHILATELIC POSTAL CLUB is an international not-for-profit association subject to the laws and regulations of the country where its registered offices are located. The main objective of the INTERNATIONAL PHILATELIC POSTAL CLUB is to assemble and foster relations between philatelists who work or have worked for any operator connected with philately, including their children or spouses, as well as representatives of postal authorities working in the philatelic domain.

2 The INTERNATIONAL PHILATELIC POSTAL CLUB may accept the participation of other individuals external to the community defined in the paragraph above (collectors, philatelists, philatelic journalists, stamp dealers, security printers, etc.)
